

sinclair can call their boradcasting of the Kerry Hit piece anything they want. It is clearly propaganda intended to change the outcome of a presidential election. It is wrong for corporate elite to use the PUBLIC airwaves to influence the outcome of an election. They are our airwaves and we want them back!